He was clearly nervous, but will do better in time.

The Brooklyns took the bat, and 5,000 cranks looked on auxiously. Griffin got his base on balls and Tommy Burns screamed "Good Eye." Then the sleek Coreoran smashed a hot onest Rusle, who threw a tlazing ball to Fuiler, and shorty doubled up Corcoran at first. This convinced the cranks that New York would not be beaten without a great battle, and when the lofty La-mance struck out the cheers sounded like the ratile of musketry.

Now it was New York's turn, and everybody watched the eyelonic Stein. Ed had his speed with him, and Stafford flied to Corcoran. Capt. Ward was more successful, however, and pushed a single past Daly into centre field. Therman secured his base on balls, and a moment later both he and Ward executed a clean double steal. George Davis's eye wasn't exactly clear, so he struck out, but Connor brought both men home with a rattling base int to right. Jackey Milligan, the boy wonder, came along now with a scratch, and a pitched ball hit Burke. With the bases covered, Fuller drove one straight at Shoch, who let the ball roil textween his feet and Connor scored, but nothing on earth could step Milligan in his toat, eisphantine dash for the plate, and Shoch, who had recovered the ball, easily threw him out.

Both sides were retired in order in the second, although Tiernan made a hit and was thrown out at second. It was the same in the third, the feature being Rusio's work in striking out both Shoch and Stein. Griffin opened the fourth with an unquestionable hit to centre. Coronan hit hard over second, but Ward made a grand stop and throw to Fuller, Griffin being forced. Coronan tried to steal, but Milligan tossed the ball to Fuller, and Thomas had to come in. Lachance for the second time struck out, and there was plenty of New York music. It was one, two, three for New York in the last half of this inning, while Brooklyn was similarly settled in the first half of the fifth. In New York's half Rusie serutched a hit to Shoch, and was literally carried to third on two fine sacrifices by Stafford and Ward, but Tiernan couldn't bring Amos home.

ried to third on two line sacrifices by Stafford and Ward, but Tiernan couldn't bring Amos home.

Daisy tegan the sixth inning for Brooklyn by being hit with a pitched ball. Sheeh got to lirst on balls, and Stein sacrificed. Griffin also sacrificed, and Dalley scored the first run for his side, but Shoch was left on third, as Ward grabbed Corcoran's piping hot liner. New York also scored in this inning. Daly fumbled Davis's easly bounder, and two clever sacrifices put George on third. Burke struck twice at the ball, and on the third attempt whanged a beauty over Corcoran's head for a base. Davis running home. Fuller was third out on a foul that Dailey took on the dead run close to the grand stand.

With two out in the seventh Burnsscratched a hit and Daly gave Ward a chance to distinguish himself. Tom shot a terrific grounder that struck John on the foot and carromed high in the air behind him. Ward dashed after it, slopped it, and by a quick throw to Connor ended the inning. Russe was lirst up for New York and ambied to first as a widely pitched ball struck him on the left arm. Stafford sacrificed and he went to second. Ward followed with a clean hit to centre, but Russic could only make third haso. Tiernan Junched a grounder to Corcoran, who threw to Daly, who muffed the ball. History to Shoch. Davis boomed a long high fly to left that Lachance misuaged. Davis making three bases and Tiernan seering causiis.

Tiernan scoring easily.

There were goose oggs for both teams in the eighth, and then Brooklyn got a lonely run in the ninth. Griffin cracked a twister to Davis and was safe. He stole second and third bases while torcoran and Lachance were going out on strikes, and finally scored on Foutz's clean hit to left. Burns put up a fly for Ward, and it was all day with Byrne's pets. The score:

He will train at New Orleans.

FAVORITES BADLY BEATEN.

KINGSTON, AJAX, AND GASCON AMONG

THE DEFEATED AT MONMOUTH. The Dwyer Champion and the Great Three year-old Were Conceding Too Much Weight to Their Opponents-Wildwood Mct Gascon at Even Weights, and His Class Carried Him Through-Derfargilla, Anthem. Wildwood, Picknicker, Sonora and Basnetlaw Yesterday's Winners,

Backers of favorites had a hard time of it at Monmouth Park yesterday, Bassetlaw alone winning for the faithful who had seen Kingston. Pochino, Gascon, Ajax, and Lumberman go down with their money before the victorious outsiders. Bassetlaw's was the last race of the day, and few persons had money enough makers held the son of St. Simon. Kingston and Ajax were unable to concede the weight asked of them, and the Californian Wildwood was overlooked in the craze for Gascon. The weather was splendid, and the track fast.

Kingston was favorite for the first race a three-quarters of a mile, but a great deal of money went on Derfargilla at the close. When the flag fell Simms rushed Derfargilla off in front, and in the first furlong she was clear of her field. At the end of three furlongs she was leading by three lengths, with Chesapeake second, and Kingston third. A furlong from home Taral went to work on Kingston, but the old horse was never able to get up, and Derlargilla, ridden out, won by a length. Chesapeake was third.

The cumbersome field of thirteen two-yearolds faced Starter Rows in the second race, a dash at five furlongs over the straight course. The talent made Mr. John Hunter's colt Pochino favorite, the sour-tempered youngster having Simms up, which must have been the main reason for anybody betting on him. The others were at long odds. The California colt Gordius ran away in his preliminary gallop, and he tried to get away with Lamly on the way to the post. There was a long delay before the flag fell to a fair start, the rank outsider Little Pilot being as good as left. McIntyre, Pochine, Anthem, and as lost. Melntyre, Forning, Anthem, and Galloping King made the running until the final furiong, where Clayton, on Anthem, shook the others off and won very handly by three lengths. Galloping King stalled off the rush made by Gordius at the end, and se-cured second money by a very small margin. Melntyre and Forning are a pair of costly disappointments.

rush made by Gordius at the end, and secured second money by a very small margin.
Mointvre and Pochino are a pair of costly disappointments.
Gascon was an odds-on favorite for the third race, and all the plungers unloosened their purses strings and bet their limit on the Bashford Manor Farm's good-looking son of Faisetto. The outcome of the race was a great surprise. After Centella had led for three furlongs Gascon and Wildwood moved up. Wildwood was a candidate for the Brooklyn Handicap last spring, but did not leave California in time to take part in the big race. His races at Monmouth prior to yesterday's performance were none too good, but the colt was evidently short of work. Yesterday with Hamilton in the saddle he was a great race horse, and when little Clayton tried to get a way with the favorite the California crack was right with him.
Despite whip and spurs freely used Gascon was overmatched and the race went to Wildwood by a length.

Ajax was favorite for the fourth race at a mile, but the three-year-old was conceding so much weight to such good performers as Picknicker, Lizzle, and Michael that before the betting ceased the price gradually lengthened against the three-year-old and at post time he was in almost equal demand with Ficknicker. When the flag fell Ajax outran his field, but Lamiy took him back, and in company with Ficknicker and Lizzle they ran the first half mile in 47 seconds, Michael, theother starter, trailing and apparently being outrun.
Rounding the lower turn Lizzle and Ajax were head and head, Pickering, with more judgment than many persons credited him with possessing, taking a slight puil on Ficknicker.
Ajax collapsed at the entrance to the stretch, and Lizzle was winning when licknicker, followed by Michael, rushed up. Taral, instead of going on the outside with Michael, went up in the middle, and in a general bumping match between the tired quartet the Swigert representative got the worst of it. Pickering straightened Picknicker out and manged to a nose for second money. The first half mile in 47 seconds cooked Ajax, but Lamily probably rode to orders.

After the race Mr. P. J. Dwyer offered to match his mare Madrid against Lizzle for $1.000 a side, the race to be run to-morrow and each to carry 107 pounds. Although Bill Daly was confident that Lizzle could defeat Madrid he would not make the match.

It seemed farcical to offer $1.000 for a contest between such cattle as Lumberman. Sonora, and Anna B., but the trio named alone appeared in the fifth race. Lumberman was made an odds-on favorite, but Sonora ran him into the ground in half a mile, and won eleverity. Anna B. was outstripped in the early part of the race, but closed a big gap at the finish, and beat the favorite for second monor.

Bassetlaw was an almost prohibitive favorite for the maiden race that wound up the programme. He was sluggish at the start, and its for the maiden race that wound up the programme. He was sluggish at the start, and Hamilton had to shake him up in order to overhaul Sam Bryant. He soon had Lakeland's candidate in trouble though and won away off. Hamilton sent him an extra five furlongs, in preparation for some race, and the English colt pulled up in good condition. Clinton, in a drive, beat Sam Bryant for second money. money.

Notes from the Hace Track. In justice to Jockey Doggett, it must be said that he rode Sir Walter in the Omnibus strictly to orders. Michael is quite a horse just now. He was running very strong when interfered with yesterday.

Wagers are being made that there will be no acing in New Jersey in December. January, or February. Sonora cost $10,000, but she is no beauty by any means, and was entered to be sold for $1,000 yesterday.

There will be plenty of racing this fall in the vicinity of New York if Elizabeth, Linden, Clifton, and Guttenburg are all in the field. Gordius is a hard-mouthed brute, but he must be a fair colf, as he ran away before his race, only to run a creditable second to Anthom.

Anthem.

Ajax stopped to nothing at the end of seven furlongs. The first half mile was run in 47 seconds and the last half in 53% seconds. All were staggering at the end.

Davy Johnson is making it interesting for his fellow bookmakers. He het $5,000 on Waited to win the last race on Tuesday, but still quit $5,000 ahead on the day.

TO-DAY'S RACING EVENTS. The Carteret Bandicap and the Freehold Stakes on Monmouth's Card,

The Monmouth Park managers announce at attractive programme, with the Carteret Handicap for two-year-olds and the Freehold Stakes for three-year-olds and upward as the leading features. John Cooper. Declare, Stonenellie. and Beldemere head the field of seventeen, so far as weights are concerned, in the handicap, while Raceland, Diablo, and Pickpocket will carry the heaviest imposts in the Freehold Stakes. The other races have not filled with as large fields as the stake events, but there is good racing material throughout the card. The conditions, weights, and entries follow in detail:

Third Race—The Carteret Handicap, a sweepstakes for two year-olds, of $100 each, half forfest, with $3.500 added, of which $750 to the second and $250 to the thirs; three-quarters of a nillo.

RACING AT CLIFTON.

Dickerson Wins a Good Bace Over a Dis

The Clifton track drew another goodly crowd yesterday, and the racing was fully up to that of the past few days. Three favorites rewarded their backers by winning, and the victors in the remaining races were well sup-

Osric opened favorite in the first race, but a strong undercurrent set in in favor of Vocalize. Vocalize made all the running and won by two lengths from Osric, who beat Jim Dunn four lengths for the place. Clerico, who rode Osric, did not ride in his usual form and allowed the colt to swerve badly near the finish, although it is doubtful whether Osric could have won in any event. A few who had bet on Osric clamored to the judges, but the officials wisely took no notice of it.

officials wisely took no notice of it.

Runaway had the call in the second race, a five-furiong scramble for two-year-olds. Hazel was a well-supported second choice, and easily disposed of her company. War Lord got second money by half a length from Salvia. The third race was the most exciting that the Cliftonitos have seen since the beginning of the meeting. Experience was held at the short price of 7 to 5, with Dickerson heavily backed, and going from 5 at the opening to 2 to 1 as they went to the post. King Lee was pacemaker for the first mile, when Dickerson and Experience closed on him. As they passed the last sixteenth pole Dickerson was leading, with King Lee, Experience, and Lucky Clover in close company. They finished heads apart in the order named.

Double Cross was the good thing in the fourth race. Getting the lead at the start he romped in front to the finish, winning by two lengths from St. Patrick, who beat Khaftan five lengths for the place.

Adair was an even-money choice in the fifth race, and at the weights it was a gift to the speedy son of St. Blaise. He was first away, and the outcome was never in doubt, the favorite romping home two lengths in front of Billy S., who got second money in a drive from Foxford by a head.

Third Cousin filly was the talent's fancy for the last race and was a real good investment at 8 to 5. She outchassed her company, and, getting away in front, was an easy winner by three lengths. Mamie Kelly beat Upstart a Runaway had the call in the second race, a

OUTSIDERS SCORE AT BARATOGA. Prince Deceiver and Conners Carried Off the Saratona, Aug. 10.-The programme announced for to-day promised good sport and urnished it. Better racing could hardly be magined, and class figured in nearly every vent. But there were few cheerful faces after t was all over. Dobbins being the only favorite score. Two stakes were on the card, the Grand Union Hotel and the Foster Memorial. Both were handleaps, and both went to light weights that were figured as not class enough to defeat their heavier weighted opponents. For the long race Charade, Lowlander, Strathmeath, Prince Deceiver, and Dundee faced the flag, and it was a flerce betting event. Charade was the nominal favorite in some books and Strathmeath in others, the odds ranging from 8 to 5 to 11 to 5. Lowlander at to I was heavily played by the public, and Green Morris fancied him to the tune of a good bet himself. Cy Jaynes, the owner of Prince

Green Morris fancied him to the tune of a good bet himself. Cy Jaynes, the owner of Prince Deceiver, played his colt with small money all over the ring, and there was a demonstration in favor of Dundee toward the end that drove his price from 10 to 5 to 1. The race was a hollow victory for Prince Deceiver, and a good performance. He led from start to finish, and won swinging in 1:53%. Strathmeath and Charade had a struggle for the place, but Morris's horse had little trouble in the last sixteenth to deleat the Metropolitan winner. Lowlander quit at three-quarters of a mile. Dundee suiked.

Connors won the two-year-old stake at 0 to 1, and there was considerable talk about the difference in the form displayed to-day and that of, his last appearance. Ellen looked to the talent a good thing on paper, but there is room for susricion that she is a somewhat overrated animal. Senella's weight undoubtedly told, but the race was not a good one, if time is taken as a test, as the selling platers ran just as fast in the second race. Kentigerna defeated St. Maxim and William T, handily in the opening dash. Fred Douglass, the imported colt, showed in this race that he possesses merit. Mack's victory in the second race was a comparatively easy one, and Clementine defeated an odd-son favorite in Acclaim in the mile. Dobbins secred the first Naratoga victory for Mr. Croker in the last race, which would not have been so easy had Ella Smith got away on even terms with the colt. She is one of the Fair string, by Joe Hooker, and has a great turn of speed, This was her second appearance here, and both times, after being practically left, she closed up strong and just missed getting a placing. LINDEN GETS ITS LICENSE.

The Town Wanted a Sewer and the Fee

ELIZABETH, Aug. 16.-The Township Committee of Linden township last night voted 7 to I to grant a license to the Linden Park Association for five years at a compensation of $5,000 a year, the first year's fee to go toward building a sewer from Roselle to tidewater

It was the anxiety to obtain this sewer that finally won over the town committeemen that heretofore have been opposed to licensing the race track, and who last spring were elected on the citizens' anti-race track tiexet. James R. English, former President of the Linden Park Association, and Lucien O. Appleby attended the meeting, and Mr. English made a strong speech for the application, getting a favorable consideration, licensically application of the said it was an injustice to the Linden track to keep it closed when every other race track in New Jersey was permitted to do business. John F. Splaning, one of the committeemen, entered a feeble protest against the license, and wanted action deferred for two weeks. This was voted down, it to 2, and then the original motion was put and carried. Every member of the committee was present. The Law and Order League is very wrathy over the matter, and claims that it was soid out by the very men it elected to flight against the race track. The imperative necessity for having a sewer, however, as has been shown, was sufficient to outweight all the influence that the league could bring to bear to defeat the action of the town committee. heretofore have been opposed to licensing the

He went back a little in his form since then, until he scored up in the 2:21 trot to-day, when he up in the 2:21 trot to-day, when he proved his speed and gameness after a closely contested race of four heats. Corinne, a fast young mare, well known in New England, was the selection of the talent, though Island Wilkes sold at 2 to 5 against the field just before the first heat. He had an easy mile to begin with, as Corinne was not asked to try his mettle till the second heat, and a mile in 2:17's disposed of the rest. Then the struggle began in earnest, and when Island Wilkes lost his stride in the third quarter of the next mile after leading to the half in 1:97. his chances for success looked doubtful. Gabrielle and Corinne both passed him, and the latter had brush enough to nip the brown mare from Philadelphia by a neck and shoulders in 2:14's. It was 5 to 4 on Corinne after she had made this new record for herself, but in the head of the stretch, and, in a splendid battle to the wire, caught the eye of the judges a nose in front of the favorite. The time, 2:13's, is a drop of nearly nine seconds in the record Island Wilkes made last season. Corinne was not able to get near the stallion in the fourth heat, and he won this with plenty to spare in 2:15's.

Fantasy was moved along in the third heat of the 2:40 class for the three-year-olds, and trotted like a record breaker, going to the half in 1:001, and coming home without any urging in 2:13 a. Double Cross was within hall to the half, but dropped back from there. B. J. Hammond of the Murray Hill Hotel, New York, was in the stand as a timer, and felt about as much pleased with the peerless filly's performance as C. J. Hamlin himself, for he owns Almonarch, the sire of Fantasy's dam. Pixley keet up the winning form she struck at Buffalo, and lowered her record a trifle when Azote carried her along in the second heat of the 2:15 trot. Hazel Wilkes falled to keep level in the last two heats, so that the big gelding from her own State beat her for second money. The free-for-all horses have two engagements tomorrow, the pacers coming first. There is also a 2:20 class open to four-year-olds to complete Thursday's programme. Summarles:

SEAGIRY, Aug. 16 -The riflemen of New Jersey and of the District of Columbia were competitors to-day in the inter-State match for regimental teams. The New York and Pennsylvania teams failed to put in an ap-pearance. There were five teams from the National guard of New Jersey and four from the District of Columbia, the shooting being at 200 and 500 yard tarrets, the men standing at the former and prope at th latter. The engineer battation team of Washington led this evening with a score of 254 at the 20%-yard range and 270 at the 500-yard range, making a grand total and 270 at the 500-yard range, making a grand total of 524 out of a possible 500. Private Scott of this team made the good record of eight straight buills-eyes, followed by two tours. The prirst Regiment of the District of Columbia held second place, the Second New Jersey Regiment fourth place.

The match will be decided by to-morrow's skirmish firing. The total scores in the inter-State match are as follows:

District of Columbia Teams—Engineer Battalion, at 200 yards, 254; at 560 yards, 270; grand total, 524.
